

Salt Lake
IMPACT 2002 & Beyond

Report Card for the Salt Lake Organizing Committee (SLOC) and the City of Salt Lake

Category/Goal	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	Goal Reached?
Housing & Community Development Opportunity to develop affordable housing as a legacy for games.	B- Made commitment to $10 million. No plans have been developed. This is separate from the planned athletic housing.	C No Progress	D SLOC reviewing media proposals which may or may not include affordable housing. Time is running out.	C- Slow progress. Housing developers/SLOC seeking $23 million federal support for housing options. May have dawdled too long.	D Approximately 360 affordable units planned in Gateway area between 40% and 80% of A.M.I.; an estimated 470 relocatable units under development.	D- City Front development in jeopardy. Fewer relocatables than originally planned.	D- Only 156 units of marginally affordable units in Gateway and 42 relocatables. No City Front units. Very disappointing results.	No 2002 Winter Olympic legacy that will benefit the entire community.
Impact Mitigation Need to mitigate negative impacts on low income, homeless persons and nonprofit service providers.	No Progress	No Progress	No Progress	C- Early signs of trouble but Romney regime shows possible avoidance of worst.	C Formation of SLOC Humanitarian Services Comm. positive, but no resources to help nonprofits. Treatment of homeless and displacement of low income renters must be watched closely.	D+ Good effort planning to redistribute excess food, but not enough progress despite lots of discussion with service providers. Significant issues need to be addressed such as overflow housing and guarantee of fair treatment.	C+ Olympic evictions have begun. Good work on overflow shelter and food redistribution but poor follow through on state-ment regarding homeless.	Negative impact on poor and homeless.
Civil Liberties Avoid infringement of individual civil rights, free speech and assembly.	N/A	N/A	N/A	C Preliminary discussion with SLOC shows willingness to prepare for and avoid abuses.	B Openness to training ideas and access to key staff has shown potential.	Incomplete Very slow progress on confirming details. Security fears may over-ride protection of rights.	B Good effort to protect 1st Amendment rights despite current security concerns.	Individual liberties fully protected?
Leadership/Ethics Openness, ethics, and transparency in organizing process.	F	F Tom Welch compensation package. Snowbasin development & other insider contracts.	F Ethics Committee refuses to act regarding ethical issues and conflicts of interest. Holding seeking more $ for Snowbasin.	C- "Bribe-gate" scandal reveals need for complete reform. Romney appointment, board restructuring, ethics oversight steps in the right direction.	C Improvement under Romney.	C No Change	C- Lack of accountability by those involved in earlier misdeeds is disappointing.	Lack of high ethical standards.
Community Representation & Involvement Representation of the entire community, not just the privileged few.	C One Community Representative.	F No action on disabled athlete or other appointments.	D Appointment of a disabled athlete and encouragement by SLOC of American Indian appointment in the future. Much more needs to be done.	C Credibility to be earned. Larger more diverse board is probably too big. Management Committee structure leaves questions.	C Management Committee serves as board. Games still run by small group of insiders.	C No Change	C No Change	No opportunity for true community involvement in the planning stages of the Olympic Games.
Disability Compliance Issues All venues, facilities, and transportation must be accessible to the disabled.	No Progress	No Progress	C Appointment of disabled athlete is positive. What comes next is crucial.	C+ SLOC needs to continue to improve sensitivity.	B So far so good.	B No Change	B+ No Change	Most universally accessible Olympic Games ever?
Grade Point Average	1.5	.67	1.0	1.83	2.167	1.8	2.167	Final Grade?